YOUR TOUR DOSSIER

This document is designed to be read in conjunction with the other pre-departure information provided by Wendy Wu Tours including the tour itinerary as described in our brochure and/or website. It aims to provide a straightforward description of the physical activities involved in sightseeing or travelling during the tour.

If there are any particular challenges, from the length of time spent on your feet, the length of drives and flights, to the standard of remote accommodation for our more adventurous tours; they will be explained here.

All passengers must read this document to ensure the itinerary is suitable for their interests and physical capabilities. This is not your final itinerary and therefore does not mention all the sites visited.

Welcome to Wendy Wu Tours

China continues to amaze, fascinate and thrill our passengers, many of whom have travelled to one country in Asia with us, then another, year after year. We urge you to keep in mind all the rewards, as well as challenges of travelling in a country with a history, culture and attitude so unlike your own.

A typical day's sightseeing may include the bustle and noise of a city street, sights and smells of a local market and interacting with the locals. Travelling in China requires patience and potential delays are to be expected due to standards of service. There is a low level of English spoken throughout China, so your local guides or National Escort will be indispensable during your trip.

We have found that our passengers who embark with a sense of humour and adventure, who accept that things do not always go to plan, are those who find their experience most rewarding.

This tour is not strenuous but it is longer in duration and includes several days where long periods of driving, sightseeing on foot and climbing of steps may be necessary. Anyone with an average level of fitness should be able to complete this itinerary. Of course our local guides always endeavour to provide the highest level of service and assistance, but they cannot be expected to cater for passengers who are unfit to complete the itinerary. If you do have mobility difficulties, please contact us for our range of private tours which are more flexible and can better cater for individual needs.

To fully participate in this tour, you must be able to:

- Walk, sometimes for long distances, and sometimes over uneven surfaces without assistance
- Complete some long days of touring with minimal breaks
- Climb steps sometimes without handrails
- Step on/off coaches without assistance
- Dis/embark between moving pontoons, docks and boats, sometimes without handrails or assistance

This tour involves two overnight train journeys which are in first class soft sleeper compartments where each cabin consists of four berths (sharing).

Although China is developing quickly, it still lacks international standards of civil infrastructure and therefore tourist facilities. For example, you may see a hole in the road without a warning sign or safety barricade; concepts of personal responsibility are different to those in the UK. Consequently, tourist and public facilities may not uphold the same safety standards as in the UK. However, all of our suppliers meet local safety standards as a minimum. We want you to have an enjoyable holiday so we ask that you take extra care, use your common sense as well as refer to notices and follow advice from your National Escort/Local Guides.

Days 1-2: UK/Shanghai

You will be met at Shanghai's Pudong Airport in the arrivals hall by your Local Guide and/or National Escort from Wendy Wu Tours. Together with all the other group members who may be arriving at a similar time, you will transfer (1 hr drive) to your hotel. There is no sightseeing today. A tour introduction will be held in the hotel later today or tomorrow morning. There will not be food or drinks served at this meeting; it is simply an opportunity for your group to meet and learn more about travelling in China.

Day 3: Shanghai

Enjoy a full day of sightseeing in central Shanghai involving approx 3-4 hrs on foot. Beware of your valuables while in the Old Town (Yuan Bazaar) as it is very crowded.

Day 4: Shanghai/Suzhou

Drive for approx 3 hrs (90km) to Suzhou. This road is often subject to heavy traffic or road construction. There will be leisurely sightseeing around Suzhou. Later, transfer to your hotel and check-in.

Day 5: Suzhou/Hangzhou

This morning we cruise on the Grand Canal to view a section of this ancient waterway. Travel by coach for approx. 3-4 hrs (120km) on the new expressway to Hangzhou and check-in to your hotel for two nights.

Day 6: Hangzhou

Lingyin Temple (Temple of Inspired Seclusion) is one of the largest and most significant temples in southern China so it can get crowded with domestic tourists, particularly during weekends and holidays. There will be approx 2 hrs of sightseeing on foot at this site. Adjacent to the temple entrance is Feilai Fen – a hill covered in Buddhist carvings and statues. If you wish to see these, you must be aware that the stone path is not level in parts.

Day 7: Hangzhou/Wuzhen/Shanghai

Drive 1 hr to the preserved canal town of Wuzhen. Sightseeing here is leisurely and involves a few hrs exploring on foot. Continue to Shanghai (approx 2 hrs) and transfer to your hotel to check-in.

Day 8: Shanghai/Guilin

After a morning exploration of Pudong District, we transfer (1 hr drive) to the airport for your afternoon flight to Guilin (flight duration approx 2 hrs). Transfer to your hotel and check-in.

NB: You will be staying in Yangshuo for a single night before returning to Guilin. We recommend you leave your main luggage in safe storage at our hotel in Guilin; taking only a small, overnight bag with you for days 9 & 10.

“ CHINA DELIGHTS IS A GREAT VALUE TOUR THAT FOCUSES ON AMAZING SCENERY AND HISTORIC SIGHTS. ”

Day 9: Guilin/Li River/Yangshuo

We take a 3 hr cruise from Guilin to the small town of Yangshuo. A simple meal will be served onboard (usually before midday at "Chinese lunch time"). These are small cruise boats, usually holding approx 100 passengers; with an enclosed dining area on the lower deck and an open viewing area on the upper deck. As it is so popular, there are generally many boats at the docks – please be reassured that the cruise itself will be scenic and relaxing as the boats cruise past unspoilt countryside. Usually the boats depart at 9am, from a dock 1 hr drive from your hotel. However when the river level is low they depart from further downstream which would mean a longer drive and an earlier check-out from your hotel. Disembarking from the cruise, your Local Guide will walk with you to your hotel, approx 15 mins walk from the river. Electric carts offered by private vendors can be organised at your own cost.

Day 10: Yangshuo/Guilin

The drive back to Guilin takes 1 hr (65km). Visit Mt Diecai; a low, karst mountain with 450 steps. We usually spend 1.5 hrs here. Continue to your hotel and check-in.

Day 11: Guilin/Chengdu

Check-out of your hotel and visit the Reed Flute Caves. We take a short walk through the caves, sometimes along damp paths and stairs. It usually takes about an hour to complete the route, and is very cool inside. Later, transfer to the airport for your flight to Chengdu (flight duration 1 hr 30 mins). Transfer to your hotel and check in for 2 nights.

Day 12: Leshan day tour

Drive 1.5 hrs (180km) to Leshan to see the Grand Buddha carving. From the Bus Park, we walk to board the small cruise boat to view Buddha from the river. Spend at least 2 hrs at Leshan before driving back to Chengdu in the evening.

Day 13: Chengdu/Xian

The Panda Reserve is located only 10km from the city centre. It is not guaranteed that you will be able to see the feeding of the younger pandas, as this only happens at the start and end of each day. Sightseeing here involves approx 1.5 hrs on foot. There are electric carts offered by private vendors and these can be organised at your own cost. This afternoon there will be easy sightseeing. Later, board the overnight sleeper train to Xian – usually a 17 hr journey (840km).

Day 14: Xian

You will arrive at Xian Railway Station and transfer to your hotel, where you can have breakfast and freshen up. Sightseeing at the Little Wild Goose Pagoda involves 1 hr on foot.

NB: Check-out time in China is midday so your group's rooms are unlikely to be available. This morning you will commence sightseeing and return to hotel later to rest and freshen up.

Day 15: Xian

The Museum of the Terracotta Warriors is located just over 1 hr drive outside of Xian. From the bus park to the Museum entrance is a 15 mins walk, usually without any shade. There are electric carts offered by private vendors which can be organised at your own cost. There is no electric cart available for the return from the Museum exit to Bus Park. Within the Museum area the warriors can be seen in 3 different "pits", which are active archaeological digs. The site is large and, towards the summer months, can be hot outside. Sightseeing here involves 2.5 hrs on foot. This afternoon we visit the City Walls. The Local Guide will give you time to explore at your own pace. There are options here to hire a bicycle or an electric cart to drive along the length of the walls. These are offered by private vendors and can be organised at your own cost.

Day 16: Xian/Beijing

You will have time at leisure before checking out of your hotel rooms before midday. Sightseeing at the Shaanxi Museum and Muslim Quarter involves 2 hrs on foot. Beware of your valuables while browsing the Muslim Quarter's alley market stalls. Later, transfer to Xian Railway Station and board the overnight sleeper train to Beijing – usually a 12 hr journey (1,200km).

Day 17: Beijing

You will arrive at Beijing Railway Station and transfer to your hotel, where you can have breakfast and freshen up. Later, visit the Temple of Heaven – at least 2 hrs on foot here.

NB: Check-out time in China is midday so your group's rooms are unlikely to be available. This morning you will commence sightseeing and return to hotel later to rest and freshen up.

Day 18: Beijing

We rise early this morning to drive 1.5 hrs (50km) northwest of the city to the Great Wall. The aim of this is to avoid the crowds of tourists who will arrive later in the morning, and the heat of the day. Visiting the Wall involves walking 200m from the bus to the first section. After your group has been given an introduction to the Great Wall's unique history you will have free time to explore the rest at your own pace.

Day 19: Beijing

Sightseeing in central Beijing involves approx 3-4 hrs sightseeing on foot during the morning to see Tiananmen Square and the Forbidden City. Visiting Mao's Mausoleum is subject to the length of the queue, as so many domestic tourists visit every day. This afternoon, we drive approx 1.5 hrs to the Summer Palace in the north of the city. The palace is set over an extensive park and man-made lake complex and there is approx 2-3 hrs walking involved at this site.

Day 20: Depart Beijing

Transfer from your hotel to Beijing Airport for your flight to the UK.

Depending on your chosen airline, some flights to the UK will arrive the same day, whereas others will arrive the following day.
